Mrs. Lela Alloway and little son of Nashville are the guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Maloney.

Misses Helen Stroup of Boscobel College, and Ethel Ray, of Monterey, visited Miss Mary Jared last week.

The pike contractors are now at work on the Public Square and pushing things as rapidly as the weather will permit.

B. S. Minor of Gainseboro now occupies W. R. Carlen's residence. Mr. Minor is a valuable acquisition to the town.

Every taxpayer in Cookeville should attend the meeting of the board of Aldermen next Monday night at the courthouse.

The Holy City in moving pictures and song at the Savoy Theatre Friday and Saturday, Jan. 5th and 6th. This is in addition to the regular program—Same price 10cts.

Frank Fox, Jeff Dean, Frank Anderson, O. T. West, and Marion Harris, have been elected pike commissioners for Jackson county, to look after the pike building to be done.

There will be preaching at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening. At the 1 o'clock service the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered and a full attendance of church members is desired.

Miss Lola Hughes won the piano in the P. M. Smith contest. By some unaccountable mistake we showed Miss Etta Gentry as the winner last week by getting the figures transposed.

News reaches us of the recent death of Stephen D. Davis at his home near Eliasville, Texas. He was a brother of the late Henry P. Davis, and formerly well known in Putnam county.

The bank is the financial heart of the community. Upon its circulation depends your prosperity. Do your part towards keeping it throbbing and we will do ours.—First National Bank.

NOTICE—To all nearby Home Telephone Companies.

Two or more representatives from all near by Home Telephone companies are specially invited to attend a meeting in Watertown, Tenn., on the 1st Thursday in February, 1912, to discuss building more trunk lines from various exchanges for better long-distance service, and also other matters of importance for the upbuilding of the Home Telephone System.

ROBT. N. GIVAN, Sect.

To my friends and the good people of Putnam County, I wish to tender my thanks for their liberal support I am still very much interested in the success of the First National Bank of Cookeville and any support given it in the future will be appreciated by me. I wish for one and all a prosperous future, and shall be glad to render any service possible. Again thanking you, I beg to remain, Very truly,

THOS. MASON.

Card of Thanks

To my many friends who so loyally supported me in the piano contest, I wish to say that my only way of repaying you at present for your kindness is by thanking you most heartily.

It is impossible for me to find words deep enough to express my sincere gratitude. The prize was well worth striving for and I realize that I have been amply rewarded for my efforts. Thanking you again, I am truly your friend,

LOLA HUGHES.

A Handsome Calendar

Below is a picture of the artistic calendar, The Herald has received from the Remington Arms—Union Metallic Cartridge Co., of 299 Broadway, N. Y. The calendar is done in colors and will appeal to sportsmen. It will be sent to any address on receipt of 4 cents to pay postage.

Teacher's Meeting

The Putnam County Teachers Association will meet at the Cookeville Public School Building, on Saturday, Jan. 13. This meeting was agreed upon at the last teacher's meeting held at Algood. The purpose of our coming together is to study the Reading Circle books, and to arrange plans for future work. The two books, Chamberlain's Standards in Education, and Kemp's History for graded schools will be discussed. Also, there will be other discussions.

I suggest that all who have not yet done so, get the the Reading Circle books by that time. I think I know that it will be to the interest of every teacher in this county, unless providentially hindered, to attend these meetings. Respectfully,

J. M. Hatfield, Co. Supt.

Epperson, Harp, Pointer & Co. Contest

The contest conducted by this popular Algood firm ended on Jan. 1, the three leading candidates and prize winners being as follows:

Mrs. H. M. Williams	160,110
Mrs. Oscar Clark	152,952
Mrs. W. L. Swallows	142,263

Champ Clark stands as the embodied spirit of the Democratic congress. He represents in his own person its manhood, its fidelity, its courage and progressiveness. He is one of the men who, in the last three years, by their loyalty to public duty and their well-balanced wisdom have done so much to commend the Democratic party to the confidence of the country. He comes bearing the Democratic message of reform and progress, and he comes, furthermore, as one qualified, by reason of his experience, his great ability, his simple earnestness and innate love of righteousness, to bear the Democratic banner next year if the national convention of his party should entrust him to that exalted duty.—Leader, Williamsport, Md.

J. J. Mills of Route 2 was in town on Monday.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

In Chancery Court at Cookeville, Tenn.
W. A. Crawford et al vs.
A. S. Cooper et al

It appearing from the bill filed in this cause, which is sworn to, that the defendants, A. S. Cooper and J. R. George, are non-residents of the State of Tennessee, and cannot be reached with the ordinary process of law; and it further appearing that an attachment has issued in this case, and has been returned levied upon the following property, viz: A lot or parcel of land situated and being in the town of Cookeville and bounded as follows:

Beginning on the extension of West street, at the southwest corner of a lot owned by Mrs. Albie Wilcox, at the edge of the street, running south with said street 150 feet to a stake; thence east 152 feet to a stake in the Davis west boundary line; thence north with said line 150 feet to a stake, the northeast corner of Mrs. Wilcox lot; thence west with her line to the beginning.

It is ordered that said defendants enter their appearance herein, before the Clerk and Master at his office in the courthouse in Cookeville, Tenn., before the first Monday in February, next, and plead, answer, or demur to complainants' bill, or the same will be taken for confessed as to them, and set for hearing ex parte, and that a copy of this order be published for four consecutive weeks in the Putnam County Herald, a newspaper published at Cookeville, Tenn.

This 2d day of Jan., 1912.

V. E. BOCKMAN,

Clerk and Master.

Algood Carlen, D. C. & M. 1-4t
O. K. Holladay, Solicitor for Complainants.

OVERTAXED

Hundreds of Cookeville Readers Know What It Means

The kidneys are overtaxed; Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains—

Backache, hippains, headache. Early symptoms of kidney ills. Urinary troubles, dropsy, Bright's disease follow.

The statement below shows you what to do.

Mrs. Bettie Dies, 128. N. Cumberland, St., Lebanon, Tenn., says: "I suffered from backache and weak kidneys and there were pains across my sides. My head ached considerably and I was subject to attacks of nervousness. Doan's Kidney Pills made me feel better in every way, and I strongly recommend them, for I think that they are the best kidney medicine to be had."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
